HISTORY OF YOUTH & COMMUNITY WORK

Interest in the historical development of youth and community work has continued to grow in recent years. Yet still there remain few opportunities for those interested in this topic to get together to share their knowledge, ideas and research. Youth and Policy is therefore once again sponsoring what will be our sixth study conference held at Northern College, near Barnsley.

The weekend will as before comprise an eclectic mix of plenary talks, workshops and happenings. At the last conference almost 30 workshops were offered on a wide range of topics and we confidently expect more this time. If you are willing to lead a workshop we would be delighted to hear from you. Advance notice is required to enable us to finalise the programme. Will those willing to offer a workshop please tick the box overleaf and we will get in touch or contact Tony Jeffs directly at tony.jeffs@durham.ac.uk either way we will be delighted to make all the arrangements.

The conference bookstall will sell new and second hand stock. Please bring any items you would like to sell on.

The location is the Northern College, Barnsley situated at the grade 1 listed Wentworth Castle.

All who attend will receive a complimentary copy of the latest volume of Essays on the History of Youth and Community Work published by Russell House, approx £25.99.

The conference runs from 17.00hrs Friday to 14.00hrs Sunday.

Confirm your booking by returning the form to conferences@youthandpolicy.org. Youth and Policy is now available free online at www.youthandpolicy.org.
